STA QUARTERLY MEETING

All members and interested parties are warmly invited and strongly urged to attend the Association's April 19th Quarterly Meeting. Updates of important industry issues of general interest to all transfer agents are on the agenda:

❖ STA UPDATE

The update will be given by Todd J. May, President, The Securities Transfer Association, Inc.

❖ UNCLAIMED PROPERTY UPDATE!

Jennifer Borden, founder of Borden Consulting Group, will provide updates on unclaimed property audits, legislation and litigation impacting transfer agents.

She will also discuss areas where the STA and its Unclaimed Property Committee can positively influence the outcome of these important issues.

Your attendance and active participation are most welcome. Please make plans to join us on Thursday, April 19th. The luncheon meeting will commence at 12:00 noon at the following location:

THE INDIA HOUSE
1 Hanover Square
New York, New York

The registration price is $70.00 per person. This includes an excellent luncheon and affords you the opportunity to network with other industry professionals and to discuss these and other issues affecting your business. Please mail your reservation promptly on the enclosed form, accompanied by your remittance payable to: The Securities Transfer Association, Inc. You may also register on-line with a credit card at www.stai.org

We are expecting a good turnout for the meeting and seating is limited. All members and their colleagues are urged to attend and participate in the discussion about these timely topics. If you require additional information, please contact Carol Gaffney at the STA Office (732) 888-6040.

Sincerely,

Todd J. May
President
